To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the privilege of knowing Tamara Hammer, Director and Owner of the Creative Learning Center for about 6 years now and it gives me great pleasure to recommend her. I would like to add that I am very supportive and excited about the continued growth of the Center. Both of my daughters (6 and 2 ½) have been enrolled at the center since they were small babies.

I was a first time mom 6 years ago and was flipping through the phone book making countless phone calls to local daycare centers speaking to what sounded like zombies on the other end of the phone until I called The Creative Learning Center of the Lehigh Valley and spoke with Tamara.

I hadn't even toured the facility yet, but I knew in the first few minutes of my phone call with her that that was where my child was going. There was such spark and enthusiasm in her voice when it came to talking about the children and I found her to be very knowledgeable regarding early childhood education. She presented me with information I hadn't given any thought to.

I have always enjoyed my interactions with Tamara whether just a friendly chit chat or something to do with my daughters.

It took me many months to adjust to having my first born in the care of other people, I was nervous and often worried about the normal things a new mom worried about so I called...a lot... and Tamara was always honest, informative, relatable, knowledgeable and most importantly, patient.

My second daughter will be 3 in April and I think I called the first two days.

Up to date paperwork. Don't even get me started on her efficiency with necessary paperwork that parents have to fill out. She doesn't miss a trick.

I cannot say for sure how long Tamara has been in business. I can only speak for the last 6 years, but I will say, it is clear she works very hard. Always striving to be better, striving for the next star, the next goal, the next phase. And from what I have seen, she has succeeded every time. Her commitment to the Center as a Director is relentless and unwavering and I couldn't be more pleased to write this letter or to have my children in her center's care. And that you cannot put a price on.

Thank you,
